

HOPOREE 2017

About the Position

Scouts SA is seeking a range of people to fill key roles relating to the 2017 Hoporee. Scouts SA is currently reviewing the structure of major events and therefore is seeking expressions of interest for people to fill a number of potential key roles moving forward for this event. These roles may include the below and will be modified to suit personnel available:

- Chief Director
- Deputy Director – incorporating Risk Management
- Administration Director – incorporating Marketing, Communications, Participant Communication
- Finance Director
- Logistics Director
- Program Director – incorporating Activities, Entertainment
- Site Director – incorporating Security, Traffic, Works & Services
- Youth Representative

You will have the opportunity to work with young people and adults in the delivery of an exciting and memorable event in the lives of Joey Scouts and their parents. As a member of the team you will be a part of an event that focusses on a range of key objectives to successfully deliver the event successfully for the South Australian Branch.

For more information about these roles, please contact Chris Wise, ACC Youth Program at acc.youthprogram@sa.scouts.com.au
