

ASSISTANT CHIEF COMMISSIONER (ADULT TRAINING & DEVELOPMENT)

About the Position

Scouts SA is looking for a volunteer with management experience who wants to do more in their community, with good interpersonal skills and the ability to motivate and inspire others. The role of an Assistant Chief Commissioner is rewarding and an opportunity to develop yourself.

You will have the opportunity to work with young people and adults, whose lives have been and can be changed by Scouting, and to inspire and train Adults in Scouting to best support the Youth Program.

As the Assistant Chief Commissioner (Adult Training & Development) you will be responsible for overseeing training programs and courses that provide Adults in Scouting with the training required to support the Youth Program including areas such as Special Needs and VET training. This role, along with other State Leadership team roles will support the roll out of the new Youth Program over the coming years.

For more information, including the duty statement for this role, please contact Mandy McKellar-Stewart (PA to Chief Commissioner) on mandy@sahq.scouts.com.au. To have a private conversation about the role, please contact Harry Long, Chief Commissioner or Chris Wise, Business Change Manager.
